Publix Super Markets lease signed for Golden Eagle Village shopping center

Orlando- BFC Development Corporation, a Battaglia Group company, is pleased to announce that Publix Super Markets will anchor its new shopping center to be developed in the four corners area of Lake County, Florida. Construction on the first phase, which will consist of a 45,600 square foot Publix Super Market, 18,350 square feet of small shops and two outparcels, is planned to break ground in early 2010 with an opening later that year. The shopping center will be located on US Highway 27 approximately two miles north of US 192 at Golden Eagle Boulevard. Consulting services for the development of the project will be provided by Fred Hohnadel, while Fred Bostrom will offer construction management services. Leasing of shops and outparcels will be handled by Bob Barkett of DJB Land Company.

BFC Development Corp. is the development arm of Battaglia Group, and is actively engaged in the planning, design and construction of commercial and mixed use projects. Battaglia Group, a Winter Park-based family owned business with a history in Florida's citrus industry, currently oversees the investment, management and development of commercial properties in Central Florida.
